

CROSSWORD

Wellesley Mental State Playlist

Across

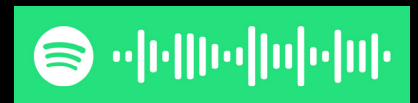

5. Still don't know why some journalists, authors, and bloggers refuse to use this punctuation mark
6. Apartment pet policy, or a Boston singer-songwriter's 2017 album
10. Can the title of this Niall Horan song please be a school-wide mantra this semester?
- 16 "I GET SAD!" -Taylor Swift
18. The titular word is repeated 38 times in this Be The Cowboy single
19. It's just one of those days according to Daniel Powter
21. Song by Kilo Kish that reflects this train of thought: "Do I even like my major? Will it get me a job? Do I even want a job? Oh god am I gonna waste my whole life in an office? Does life even have meaning?!"
22. a song recently (& somewhat controversially?) covered by Ritt Momney
24. Look on it if you can find it, Miss
27. the opposite of an outgoing boy . . .
28. a well known song by REM off of Automatic For The People, or how we were all feeling last March
30. The city we're led to believe is actually close by before coming to Wellesley (I miss her : ((
31. Controversial guitar smasher & Grammy nominee
32. An oceanside summer home, or an American dream pop band

Down

1. The title of this song is something that I search for when writing my essays in the middle of the night. Also, this is the song by The Beatles that the main characters of Donna Tartt's The Goldfinch--Theo Decker and Boris--listen to on repeat.
2. they're only this kind of issue if they come from a specific region in France
3. When my friends who I haven't seen in a YEAR ask me how I'm doing this is what I say
4. When you embarrass yourself and literally do not wanna exist
7. How long it feels like until the end of the term and roughly the distance between Boston and Nashville
8. Early 2000's hit by Lit, also when you have imposter syndrome
9. HS1, also location for taking zoom classes from home.
11. This confessional song by French artist Christine and the Queens captures the 2020 mood. Also what I tell my blockmates at the end of the week.
12. What I would say to Banksy if I ever figured out who they are
13. Heard in The Queen's Gambit, and a command I give myself every day
14. See ya later Friday, Saturday, Sunday. . . hate to see you go but I love to watch you leave :(

15. Fergie's other big hit, no, not the National Anthem
17. Sometimes you just have to cry it out and pick yourself up, pick yourself up (yuh) 20 Graveyard hours of employment
23. It's hard for Harry Styles to go home and do this
25. best way to describe the emotional ups and downs of this year, also an amusement park ride that I would never consider going on with COVID
26. The lyrics of this song, released by Oh Wonder in 2015, beautifully remind us to "not be worried" and "swing your head high."
29. Puppet master meets Justin's ramen hair

current moods

In collaboration with WZLY 91.5